Let's develop your Lighting Design !

Step One

The perfect light begins with your idea and our lighting consultant. You'll share your ideas, budget, ... with our local team. They'll communicate what you've discussed to our internal team at our Office.

Step Three

Do you like it?

Once the client has approved the designs and samples, the project is confirmed in signing and the real work begins: creating shop drawings, preparing technical documentation, and the actual production process.

Technical and technological documentation

For each light we create technical documentation that contains details including the number of components, sizes, colours, and surface finishes. This ensures an efficient production process.

Step Two
